

exportResults()
Description: Starts export of the results with file format FileType, after access is granted Precondition: System check is done Postcondition: Export action is running and user will be informed if access is granted
Returns: Nothing Exceptions: None Result: Export action will be informed if access is granted and will start exportStatus()
Type: System - operation References: accessStatus() Comment: - accessStatus()

Description: Information Precondition: exportResult() was started Postcondition: User is informed if files will be exported Returns: Nothing Exceptions: none Result: User Information Type: System - operation References: startExport() Comment: - startExport(File Type Results)

Description: Exports the requested files Precondition: Results from system check are created Postcondition: Results will be transformed in corresponding format, export files are ready

Returns: Nothing Exceptions: Throws exception if export isn't possible, exportStatus = failed Result: Export action gets export Files
Type: System - operation References: exportStatus() Comment: -

ExportStatus()
Description: Shows user if the export was successful and grants him access to the files Precondition: startExport() = finished Postcondition: User got the exported files, or receives failure message
Returns: Nothing Exceptions: None Result: User is informed, -> access to exported files
Type: System - operation References: None Comment: -